Service in Your Time of Need

Going to jail can be stressful for both you and your family. If you have questions about the bail bond process, we will be more than happy to answer them. Below are some of our most commonly asked questions.

What is a bail bond

A bail bond is also known as a surety bond. It is a financial guarantee to the court that gets the defendant out of jail while promising that the defendant will show up for their pending court date. If the defendant does not meet the conditions of the court, such actions will forfeit the bond and a warrant will be issued for arrest.

How much does a bail bond cost

Once a bail amount has been set for the defendant, a bail bond will usually cost approximately 10 percent of that bail amount.
